A Poem for JB

A million times we'll miss you, a million times we'll cry
If love could have saved you, you never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly; in death we love you still,
In our hearts you hold a place that only love can fill.
The golden gate stood open, God saw you needed rest,
God's garden must be beautiful, for he only picks the best.

Psalm 100:3

*Know ye that the Lord he is God: It is he that hath made us,
And not we ourselves; We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.*

The Obituary

Jeffrey Brown, Sr. was 42 years of age born October 27, 1959 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Robert Poythress and Patricia Brown Washington. He was the second eldest of six children. His aunt, Betty Jones preceded him in death.

His mother reared her children in the fear of the Lord and instilled in them a love for the Lord with her teaching. Jeffrey accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized at the Rescue Temple Church of God In Christ some years ago. He attended church there from time to time.

To really describe Jeffrey Brown, you had to know that he had a love for large sport events such as basketball, boxing and football. Jeffrey's trademark was barbecuing. To see him barbecue with his fingers was something to see and nobody but Jeffrey could do this.

Jeffrey had a love for people, ever ready to do what was needed, always ready to help someone in need. He had the most beautiful smile and a wonderful personality and would give you the shirt off his back. His love and dedication for his mother was his enjoyment of life.

Jeffrey graduated from West High in 1979 and moved on in life working as a cook at the Terrace Hilton Hotel downtown Cincinnati. He finished his last ten years at Bodycote as a lead person in his department.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Jeffrey Brown, Jr., Ricardo Lamont Brown, Tamara and Vincent Brown; his grandchildren, Juwon Brown, Alexis Brown, and Quincy Lamont Wilson; his devoted mother, Patricia Brown Washington and stepfather, Robert T. Washington; sisters, Angela Brown and Robin Brown; brothers, Michael Brown, Ronald Brown and Derrick Brown; aunts, Ruby Walton and Mary Lou Stevenson; uncles, Charles Brown, Joe E. Brown, Robert Brown and a host of other uncles, nieces, cousins, nephews, relatives and friends.

JB will be truly missed by everyone. We love you JB!
