

The Acknowledgement

Father God, we the Family of Jewell Lee Stevenson are asking in the name of Jesus that you bless and prosper those who sent cards, warm wishes, and prayers to our family during this time of bereavement. We ask that you open the floodgates of heaven and pour out blessings that there will not be room enough to store them. We thank them, and most importantly we thank You, Father for placing them in our lives for such a time as this. Amen!

Life's Reflection

Jewell Lee Walker Stevenson was born December 12, 1913 to the union of the late Drew and Lula Walker in Evergreen, Alabama.

She came to live in Cincinnati, Ohio with relatives at an early age. After graduating from Stowe School, she was employed by The American Laundry Company. Jewell saved enough money to bring her parents and siblings from Evergreen, Alabama to Cincinnati, Ohio.

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior and joined First Antioch Baptist Church under the leadership of the late W. H. Williams. She taught Sunday school, was a member of missionaries and Ladies Senior Usher Board. She conducted prayer meetings in her home for children weekly.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Marion Stevenson and to this, union three children were born.

Jewell was affectionately called "Jerry" and "Mama Jerry" by many. She was a very loving and caring person and was recognized by the Cincinnati Enquirer for 12 years of contributing to the Free Store Food Bank. She also volunteered at Catherine Booth, Home for Unwed Mother. She would keep the babies while the mother's finished school. She was a faithful member of Evanston Eastside Senior Citizen Center. In 2003, she was inducted into the Senior Citizens Hall of Fame at the Hyatt Regency.

Jewell was known for her fashion. (Girl friend knew she could dress).

On February 7, 2011, Jewell departed this life. She was preceded in death by her husband Marion S. Stevenson; son Carl E. Stevenson; brother Archie Walker; and sister Delois Lewis.

She leaves to cherish her memories: two daughters, Jerilyn Sue Walker and Donna Elaine Stevenson of Cincinnati, Ohio; one sister, Ellen Faye Pearson of Cleveland, Ohio; three sister-in-laws, Carrie Walker of Cincinnati, OH, Algie S. Brantley and Lillie Mae Stevenson of Selma, AL; a daughter-in-law, Mary Stevenson; two grandsons, Carl Stevenson, Jr. (Sandra) and Jerome Craig Manigan of Houston, TX; granddaughter, Jada Stevenson; two great-grandsons, Piankhi and Seti Stevenson; a special son, James Isabel, Sr.; a loving niece, Nancy Dempsey (Larry) and a host of relatives and friends.

Ms. Jewell Stevenson

We love you like daughters love their own mother. You will forever be in our thoughts and prayers. We thank you for wonderful and happy fond memories we shared as family and friends. Your beautiful smile is now a memory that will last a lifetime for us. You are loved and will be missed but deep in our hearts, we know your spirit is here guiding us along the way. Our most sincere condolences to your loving family and friends.

Her life is your legacy, her love was her gift... and your memories of her are the comfort you'll keep in your heart forever.
May God find you new grace, strength, and insight in the feelings and memories that show she is still with you.
Love always, Dawn Jackson

To Donna & Sue

Deepest condolences on the passing of your Mother, Mrs. Jewell.
Be comforted knowing she is cleaning her room in the Lord's mansion.
Rest in peace Mrs. Jewell!

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.
II Timothy 4:7

Mother we could never thank you enough for all you ever were to us. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you when God called you home. Although we miss your physical presence, a part of you will always remain embedded deep in our hearts where it will be nurtured by our never-ending love for you.
